EASTER SUNDAY.

Floral Decorations and Praise Service to All the Churches.

Easter Sunday, the great festival of Church, was observed yesterday in all the churches of Honolula by special services. St. Andrew's Cathedral, of the Anglican Church and Fort-street Church and the Bethel Union Church of the Congregationalists were especially decorated for the occasion, and flue musical services were rendered in the two latter. The floral decorations in St. Andrew were arranged by H. R. H. Queen Dowager On this occasion over sixty persons partook Mr. A. Marquez. of the sacred elements.

drew's Cathedral, at which His Lordship pers, among whon were His Majesty the King, H. R. H. the Princess Likelike, with her husband, Hoi. A. S. Cleghorn, and Hawaiian services.

At the 9:30 a. n. service the Rev. A Mackintosh preachd a sermon in Hawaiian service, 11 infants were baptized.

THE CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL. At the Roman Catholic Cathedral a High Pontifical Mass was sung, the St. Louis College Band, under the leadership of Mr. C. Michaels and Brother Bertram, assisting, the choir rendering Gluck's Mass in C. The music was very good, showing the result of careful training. During the services 21 infants and 23 adults were baptized, and about 50 young people were confirmed by the Bishop of Olba, assisted by the clergy of the cathedral. The Cathedral was crowded with worshippers all day, and at 4 p. m. the high alta was illuminated again, for the first time since Good Friday.

FORT-STREET CHURCH. The decorations at Fort-street Church were very handsome. A superb bouquet stood on either corner of the pulpit platform, and a bank of roses at the base of the pulpit itself. Along the front of the choir gallery was the inscription, "Christ, the Lord, is Risen To-day;" and midway on the front of the same gallery was a handsome lyre of fragrant, glossy maili, on which rested a large cross of superb roses. The angles of the pulpit platform were filled in with palm leaves, and each of the many side lights on the walls of the church were decorated with bunches of ferns and other | the Coast, with his family, on Friday last.

The singing by the children was very fine. The sermon was from 1 Cor., 15:20, "Now is Christ risen from the dead," etc. The whole service was very enjoyable. In spite of the rain which set in about 7 It is a kelp to get big crops when prices o'clock p. m., a large congregation assembled to enjoy the Easter Praise Service. The very full and elaborate musical programme, which was published in last Saturday's P. C. ADVERTISER, was well carried through under the leadership of Professor Yarndley. The choir, numbering about 20 voices, acquitted itself very creditably, all the numbers being admirably rendered. Among those especially enjoyable was Paff's "Cavatina," for organ and violin, in which Professors Yarndley and Jones showed the wonderful capacity of their instruments to touch the human soul.
